

Would I lie to you?

1. 3-point pen policy

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yZT4Oi5pzg0>

Questions

Explain David's 3-point pen policy

Why does David say 'I'd rather not'?

What's the silly command?

Glossary

Faltering: speak hesitantly delivery: manner of speaking

2. Hugh Dennis Rabies

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=X2e8IpxWvGE>

Questions

Why did Dennis start to touch the tip of his nose?

What did he say they had to do with dogs?

Glossary

Spark off: To cause sth to start or develop.

Ward off: keep sth away from you.

rabies: a disease of dogs that causes madness and death

chuckle: laugh quietly

ludicrous: absurd, unreasonable

3. Using an object (a book)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8D7K0IkYOog>

Why does Greg try to age books in a sauna?

What does Lee Mack (the bloke in red) think the book is aged by?

Glossary

Bashed up: hard hit, worn (it has been used a lot)

Bloke: guy

Harry Hill impression: (Cultural reference) Gregg Wallace look like Harry Hill , a British comedian, in the programme.

Answers

3 pen-point policy (True)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yZT4Oi5pzg0>

Why does David say 'I'd rather not'? He does not want Lee to break the pen...

What's the silly command? If you try to destroy the pen...

Hugh Dennis Rabies (Lie)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=X2e8lpxWvGE>

Why did Dennis start to touch the tip of his nose? For superstitious reasons. The problem is related to rabies in dogs

What did he say they had to do with dogs? To ward them off

Using an object (True)

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8D7K0IkYOog>

Why does Greg try to age books in a sauna? They look bashed up and old

What does Lee Mack (the bloke in red) think the book is aged by? Dampness